Unbeaten Bearcats head to Pittsburgh Invitational

Having won the Radford Highlander Classic last weekend, the Binghamton men's soccer team (2-0-0) heads to the Pittsburgh Invitational Tournament this coming weekend. The Bearcats square off against Robert Morris on Friday at 5 p.m. and face the host Panthers on Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

More accolades for Stenta

Sophomore goalkeeper Jason Stenta (Binghamton, N.Y.) has picked up right where he left off in 2006. He was named the Most Outstanding Defensive Player at the Radford Highlander classic as well as the America East Conference Player of the Week. He has now received the conference's weekly accolade three times during his career.

Against the host Highlanders last Saturday, Stenta made a pair of saves. He added three more stops against then No. 30 Winthrop on Sunday.

Last season, Stenta earned second-team all-conference honors, was also named to the conference's all-rookie squad and concluded his season with an appearance on the America East All-Tournament team.

Scouting Binghamton

Binghamton is off to its best start since 2004 and has shut out its first two opponents for the first time since 2003. The Bearcats also received votes in this week's College Soccer News Top 30 poll.

Senior midfielder Matt Narode (Glenmont, N.Y.) scored the game-winner in the win over Winthrop and freshman forward Josh Sailer (Endwell, N.Y.) had the lone goal in the game against Radford.

Scouting Robert Morris and Pittsburgh

Robert Morris (2-1-0) defeated Pittsburgh (0-2-1) 3-1 on Wednesday night. Senior forward Jacek Przednowek scored twice for the host Colonials, who are off to their best start since 1995. Przednowek and freshman midfielder Neil Shaffer each have a team-high three goals and seven points so far this season. Junior forward E.J. McCormick has a team-high three goals for the Panthers heading into the tournament.

Binghamton has no previous meetings with Robert Morris or Pittsburgh in men's soccer.
